

ZPS named 2010 Manufacturers' Agency Of The Year

December 10, 2010

Fenton, MO - AMS Automotive, Inc. is pleased to announce that Zurawel Patton Sample has been selected as the recipient of the 2010 Manufacturers' Representative Agency of the Year Award. Since 1998, ZPS has represented AMS Automotive and we are proud to say that this is their 3rd time to win this award.

Total AMS market share has grown significantly since the appointment of ZPS, due in large part to their automotive expertise, knowledge of the territory and sales experience. They have successfully promoted the AMS "Sell the System" philosophy by educating customers of the added profitability associated with clutch hydraulics and flywheels, as well as clutch kits.

Michael Mancini, AMS Eastern and Canada Regional Sales Manager states "All the ZPS team utilizes all the sales and marketing resources that AMS makes available to them. The positive relationships that the ZPS team has built, shows thru time and time again. Based on the past few years' activities, I anticipate that ZPS will continue its upward sales growth in 2011 and beyond."

AMS congratulates the following members of the ZPS team for their efforts in 2010:

- David Mattu – British Columbia
- Gord Patton – Ontario East
- Terry Patton – Manitoba and Saskatchewan
- Gilles Pelletier – Quebec South
- Fred Peters – Ontario West and Newfoundland
- Bill Sample – Ontario Central
- Ray Scott – Ontario North and Nova Scotia
- Jimmy Vavoulis – Quebec North
- Duane Zurawel - Alberta
